FOR TIMES WOMEN WHO WANT TO KNOW Mrs. W. A. Slater Is to Spend Winter

What Is Seen in The Shops

This column is not an advertising column, but is conducted by The Shopper to aid The Times' women readers who are interested in what the shops offer. Every item mentioned has been personally inspected by The Shopper and bargains pointed out are based on a carefully considered opinion of values. Information as to the identity of the stores referred to may be had by calling Main 5260 and asking for The Shopper.

BY THE SHOPPER.

ioned garden flowers. One of the smart-est hats shown was of black hatter's

In a little embroidery shop on

In a little shop that carries only the saw a pretty navy blue marquisette waist, made over net, and hand-em-broldered about the collar in blue and of pinstriped navy blue and white satin. There was a little lace guimpe, and half-sleeves of lace peeping out early spring and summer, are priced $1

In an F street store, not far from the corner of Twelfth street, they are having a special sale of imitation point

The price was only $6.50. In the same shop they showed me a little "slip on" jumper of navy blue satin, the lower half of the garment being made

The woman who is in doubt regarding much in evidence, especially on the hats for misses and children.

The velvet is the hat par excellence for dress, but for street wear with that is being held at the store of Leverher fall and winter outfit can do no better than visit the annual style show that is being held at the store of Leverton & Co. today, continuing throughout the week. With all of this establishment's four floors brimful of the lishment's four floors brimful of the latest and most tastefully selected garments for women, even the most critical shopper cannot but be pleased with what is being presented. The visitor is greeted with a wealth of flowers and foliage as she enters the store. On the first floor especial attention is paid to waists, silk petticoats, and other accessories of woman's dress.

Dainty chiffon, marquisette and lace waists are displayed in profusion, as loved as the profusion, as loved as the profusion, as loved as the profusion as loved waists are displayed in profusion, as well as the more severe tailored waists, well as the more severe tailors and this store makes a specialty.

Some of these linen waists are hand embroidered, and others have the mannish collars and cuffs that seem so applicable to the cown was applied four tiny gold rosebuds with their foliage. propriate for the business woman. The firm makes a specialty of moderately priced waists, and as there are no two Eleventh street, not far from New alike, the purchaser has the satisfaction York avenue, the woman who is inof knowing that she will wear an ex- terested in new ideas in fancy work clusive garment, if choice is made at can find many things that are of this store.

On the second floor is displayed the some new embroidery called "punch" on the second floor is displayed the tailor-made suits, ranging from those of the more dressy type of broadcloth to the plainer tweed, serge, novelty goods, and cloth suits for business and general utility wear. In this department, as well as in all the other sections of the Leverton store, the rule has been made that there will be no charge for alterations.

Some new embroidery called "punch" work, which is a very good imitation of Mexican drawn work. One pretty centerplece of this work was marked in this charming little shop. Full instructions for doing the work are also given at this shop gratis.

charge for alterations.

The third floor is given up to the coat and wrap department. Beautiful evening wraps, fur coats, the heavy double-faced ulsters, which are so popular and so scarce that other stores are taking orders for them, but are not promising them before winter, are discounted as flowers and because the department of the commoditions, the kind a man invariably and the commoditions. lar and so scarce that other stores are taking orders for them, but are not promising them before winter, are displayed on figures, and beneath the glass cases shimmer the satin, velvet, and soft lustrous broadcloth evening wraps. An especially handsome theater coat of Also the more common bags and suit delft blue satin, made on the Mandarin model, had a banding of Japanese em-

The fourth floor is dedicated to the display of dresses, evening and dinner gowns, and dancing frocks. An especially pretty and dainty frock of the latter description intended for a debutante was of pale blue chiffon over silk of the same shade, with a fichu of filet lace. This same lace edged the overdress, and was caught up in a festoon with a cluster of tiny pink rosebuds. A bunch of the same flowers was tucked into the belt at the waist line. A dinner gown of salmon pink crepe meteor was trimmed with the same material puffed and ruffled into a redingote effect, and these same puffings were used about the waist. The notable feature fect, and these same puffings were used about the waist. The notable feature of this gown was the pleated peplum effect about the waistline, and the handsome collar of pattern lace. The net and beaded effects are popular this winter, and there is a wide color range from which to select. Purple, the daring combinations of cerise, lavender and blue are all new, and these combinations are to be found in many of the handsomer dresses at Leverton & Co.'s fashion display. There are no two models alike, which makes for exclusive. alike which makes for exclusiv ness, that which every woman is search-ing for this year. All of the handsomer gowns shown by this establishment show a decided narrowness of skirts and long French lines. For trimming the choice is between fringe and the handsome embroidered or lace bandings.

"The time is past when the welldressed woman buys one pair of shoes and wears them six months, then discards them and buys another pair. The manager of the Palais Royal's shoe department was responsible for this statement this morning, when I dropped in upon him to ask him what would be the proper thing in rootwear this fall and winter. "Nowadays," he continued, a woman has a pair of shoes for every gown, and any number of pairs of shoes for especial occasions."

The woman who goes about a great deal in all sorts of weather must fortify herself against that enemy of woman's good looks damp feet by investing in a pair of the high, heavy oled, thick storm boots which the Palais Royal is showing exclusively. The college girl goes in for the new shoe that has been named for her,
"The College Maid," a high, natty soking shoe with a mannish toe, moderately high heel, and a cute litte tassel dangling from the slashed

The newest thing that the raiais Royal is showing at its opening to-day is the "Harem Shoe," a low affair that comes in tan, dull calf, patent leather and any number of other leathers. It is low, having only six buttons, and is intended to be worn with the harem skirt, which its designer will assin push to the front choux; the black and colored velvet slippers, the high white or colored castor and buckskin shoes to match almost any costume, and last, but not least, by any means, the dainty little boudoir slippers, in delicate colors, ornamented with huge pompons or bows to match the colors of mylady's negligee garments. The little "toot-sies" are not forgotten, either. For baby's first steps, there are provided the cutest little soft-soled slippers in white or colored kid; little moccain white or colored kid; little moccasins made by hand, and soft little woolen bootees, also made by hand.

The old lady whose footsteps are treading their last milestones has been provided for with soft shoes that are hand made, soft and comfortable. The low heels, and flexible, hand-turned soles are intended for comfort rather than show, and are sold at a moderate price.

sold at a moderate price.

This opening of the Palais Royal's shoe department is anticipatory to a later opening, which will be announced as soon as the rebuilding operaare finished, when this department moves into its commodious space in the northwest corner of the

One of the handsomest model hats that is shown in Goldenberg's millinery opening today is of velvet in a shade between an olive green and brown. It is decidedly "pokish" in and building up process. With adshape, and the crown in the back is turned up abruptly and slashed to show turned up abrupily and stashed to show the new style of wearing the hair low on the neck. It is simply trimmed with three curied French plumes, two of them showing a beautiful shade of bronze: the third in a mode shade. Anbronze: the third in a mode shade. Another especially attractive hat that is intended for theater wear is a soft hood shape of white velours. The brimless shape is swathed with wide ribbon in gold and Pulgarian effect, and white silk fringe falls about the face. On one side of this chic little creation there. less shape is swathed with wide ribbon in sold and Pulgarian effect, and white slik fringe falls about the face. On one side of this chic little creation there is a stiff cockade of white feathers. A great deal of the new two-toned satin ribbon is used as trimming on many of the hats that are being shown at Goldenberg's. Ottoman ribbon is also plexion just use this simple treatment. Goldenberg's. Ottoman ribbon is also plexion, just use this simple treatment.

Will Close Beverly Home and Sail September

Mrs. W. A. Slater will close her summer home at Beverly, Mass., in a day or two and will sail from New York September 30 to spend the winter in Europe with her son-in-law and daughter, Baron and Baroness de Struve.

Thirtieth.

for dress, but for street wear with tailor-made dress suits, the velours or felt hats are favored. The velours is Baron de Struve, who was attached felt hats are favored. The velours is to the Russian embassy in Washington especially satisfactory, because of the last winter, will be transferred to anfact that it can be bent into shape to become almost any face, and will keep their home in St. Petersburg. to the Russian embassy in Washington last winter, will be transferred to antheir home in St. Petersburg. Mr. Slater will remain in this country, coming to Washington about the last of October from New York.

> Dr. and Mrs. William Cabell Moore have returned to their apartments at the Wyoming after a visit to Mrs. Moore's father, John Fox, sr., in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Woodward, who spent the summer touring in Italy, have returned to Washington, and are at their residence on Sixteenth street for the winter.

General Clayton And Wife Returning.

Gen. Powell Clayton, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Clayton are expected to return Washington today from Pomfret Center, Conn., where they spent the latter part of the summer, and will open their apartment in the Highlands, for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. John C. Boyd, U. S. N. and Miss Alice Boyd, who spent the summer in Europe, are expected to re-turn to Washington about October 12.

Mrs. Carlington and Miss Sally Garlington, wife and daughter of Gen. E. A. Garlington, U. S. A., who spent the summer in California, will return to Washington early next month. General Garlington, who is abroad, will join his family upon their arrival here. family upon their arrival here.

Mrs. William De C. Ravenel, who spent the summer in the mountains of South Carolina, has returned to Wash-ington and joined Mr. Ravenel at their residence on Riggs place.

Mrs. Lemuel Hitchcock, who has spent the last several years touring in Europe, has arrived in Washington and has taken an apartment in the High-earrings this morning in an F street store, not far from Thirteenth street. They were made of alternate leaves of platinum set with rhinestones, and bar-oque pearls. They were semi-barbaric Mr. and Mrs. West And Daughter Are Back,

Mr. and Mrs. William D. West and Miss Katharine West have returned to their home, 1312 Euclid street, after spending the summer in Europe -+-

Rear Admiral C. T. Hutchins, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hutchins, will go over to Philadelphia this week for a visit to their son and daughter-in-law, Lieut C. T. Hutchins, ir., U. S. N., and Mrs. Hutchins. Lieutenant Hutchins is attached to the U. S. Method at the contract of is attached to the U.S.S. Maine at League Island. Admiral and Mrs. Hutchins expect to spend the winter on the Riviera.

Mrs Guy Norman was the guest last week of Mr and Mrs. Nathaniel Simpkins at Yarmouthport.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Marbury, who spent the summer in Maine, have returned to Washington, and epened their kins at Yarmouthport.

naving a special sale of imitation point de Venise lace, which is especially handsome. Jabots and stocks of this lace are priced 75 cents and $1. Sailor collars are 50 cents, and bandings are from $1 to $2 a yard. Cut apart, these bands may be appliqued on a blouse, making it a dressy affair.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, mother I saw in a department store near Eighth street some very pretty lace and tucked net guimpes for $1. They had high collars that were boned, and long sleeves. The addition of one of these guimpes to the low necked, short sleeved summer dress will give it a new lease on life.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, mother of Representative Longworth, will close her estate at Pride's Crossing. early in October. She probably will close her son, and her daughter. Countess de Chambrun, wife of the Military Attache of the French embassy, in Washington, before returning to her home in Cincinnati for the winter.

MISS AMPERO RIVERO. Attractive Daughter of the Cuban Minister, Who Will Be One of the Season's Debutantes.

Justice Hughes and Family Back Today

Mr. Justice Hughes and Mrs. Hughes and their family will arrive in Washington today from their summer home on Long Island. They have taken an apartment in the Highlands where they will remain until they open their home in Massachusetts avenue for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George X. McLanahan, who now are at Watch Hill, will return to Washington the first of next month and open their house on Q street. Dr. and Mrs. William C. Gwynne, who spent the last several weeks in Atlantic City and New York, will return to Washington this evening, and open their louse in O street. Mrs. William C. Borden, who has spent the summer in Elmira, N. Y., will return to Washington today and join Dr. Borden at their residence on California street.

turned to Washington, and opened their Mrs. Theodore F. Shuev louse in Sixteenth street for the winter. Rear Admiral Robley C. Evans, U. S.

N., and Mrs. Evans, who are at Bar Harbor now, will return to Washington aboutOctober 20.

Mrs. Sharpe, wife of Brig. Gen. Henry Sharpe, U. S. A., who is now visiting General Sharpe's sister. Mrs. Davenport, at Bath, N. Y., will return to Washington next Monday and join the general at their residence on M

Sir Frederick Pollock of England is the guest of Mr. Justice and Mrs. Oliver Wendell Holmes, at their

Everybody's Question Box-Answers to Queries

Times Inquiry Department:

In the college girl goes in for the new hoe that has been named for her, the College Maid," a high, natty booking shoe with a mannish toe, and a cute little tassel dangling from the slashed pper.

The newest thing that the Palais toyal is showing at its opening to-

If you no longer love the young lady to whom you were engaged, the kindest thing to do would be to tell her quite frankly that your affection for her has changed. I hardly think you can love either of the young ladies, because a this autumn.

Then there are the shoes for evening wear, the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and fluffy chiffon choux; the black and colored the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and fluffy chiffon choux; the black and colored the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and fluffy chiffon choux; the black and colored the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and colored the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and colored the satin slippers, with rhinestone buckles and colored the satin slippers and sating the sating slippers are sating slippers.

Times Inquiry Department:

Do you know of any way to remove superfluous hair from the forearms? I have heard that it groups worse if cut. It is very annoying to me. Thanking you forny information you may be able to give me. I remain. Yours truly. T. M. Use peroxide and ammonia water to remove the hair from your forearms. Do not cut or singe the hair, because it will grow out again stiff and dark. This solution will remove the hair and rot the roots so that the hair will not grow again.

Times Inquiry Department: Will you please publish a very good sham-poo which will thoroughly clean the scalp and leave the hair soft and fluffy? My hair is very oily. Thanking you in advance, I am. Yours sincerely, RUTH O. hair is very oily. Thanking yours sincerely,

The following is a very good sham-poo for oily hair: Bay rum, two quarts; alcohol, one pint; water, one pint; tincture of cantharides, one ounce; carbon-

How Nature Makes New Complexions

(From The Family Physician.) It is well known that the human skin is constantly undergoing a tearing down tissue-change lags; the lifeless, soiled surface skin stays on so long that its owner gets a "poor complexion." Common sense tells us this dead skin cannot be enlivened or beautified by any cosmetic, lotion or powder. The natural thing to do is to remove the offensive skin-remove the bad complexion. It has been found that ordinary mercolized wax completely absorbs the deritalized existing minute particles. So ate of ammonia, one-half ounce; car-bonate of potash, one ounce. Dissolve the carbonates in the water; mix the other ingredients and add all together, agitating thoroughly. Sprinkle the lotion thoroughly over the head. Part the hair with the fingers of one hand while you sprinkle with the other; in this way you will be sure to wet the scalp as well as the hair. Massage and let the liquid dry into the hair and Times Inquiry Department: Can you give me a remedy for falling hair and dandruff? Thanking you, I remain A SUBSCRIBER.

To remove dandruff use the following formula: Tincture of cantharides, one ounce; liquid ammonia, one dram; glycerine, one-half ounce; oil of thyme one-half ounce; rosemary oil, one-half dram. Mix all together with six ounces of rose awter. Rub the scalp thoroughly with the preparation until the dandruff entirely disappears. For fallring hair, this remedy is very good:
Tincture of nux vomica, one ounce; spirits of rosemary, two ounces; alcohol, two ounces. Apply several times a week to the roots of the hair. For the other remedy to which you refer in your letter, I recommend you see a doctor. doctor.

Will you kindly inform me through the Inquiry Column if there is any way to get rid of a queer odor in an ingrain carpet, and oblige, Miss ELIZA T. Hang your carpet out in the sunshine, School time is here! Have your children's eyes care-ully examined to see if they fully examined to see if they need glasses.

If they complain of headaches, dizxiness, sleepy feeling and desire to close the eyes while reading, or lines running together, or blurring of vision, THEY NEED GLASSES,

Our Optholmologist will examine their eyes and make the glasses at a most moderate cost, and you can pay for them at the rate of 50c per week,

CACTEL DEDCCC 935 Pa. CASTELBERG'S, 935 Pa. W.

Please publish a method for developing the bust, and oblige, Very truly yours. T. I. N.

Dr. Vaucaire's remedy is well recom mended; liquid extract of galega (goat's rue), ten grammes; lacto-phosphate of lime, ten grammes; tincture of fennel, ten grammes; simple syrup, four hundred grammes. The dose is two soupspoonfuls in water before meals. The results are said to be very good. The drinking of malt during meals is also

Times Inquiry Department: Do you know when the Government will take the Delaware avenue and B street block? Thanking you for the information, I am, A BENEFITED READER. The Government will probably take the block to which you refer in about a couple of months. I am told that Judge Barnard will select three com-missioners on the 16th of October to appraise this property.

> LOCAL MENTION. Hamlet.

Oysters, Md. Quick, 610 9th, 1008 Pa. ave

DR. CARLTON VAUGHAN.
The Well-known Washington
Dontist, 207 SEVENTH ST. N. W., has a very important announce-ment in teday's paper. If you ap-preciate the "Best There Is in Dentistry" at Fair Prices you should not fail to read it.

Colonel Knight and Family Open Their Residence

Col. John T. Knight, U. S. A., Mrs. Knight and Miss Ailce Margaret Knight, have returned to Washington and opened their residence in Calvert street, atfer spending the summer their cottage in the Blue Ridge.

The Postmaster General, Frank H Hitchcock, who is spending a few days in New York, entertained at dinner in-formally at the Hotel Manhattan, last Miss Elizabeth Green, daughter of the Mayor of Charlestown, W. Va., who was the guest for the week-end of Miss Marion Edmorston King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. King, left Washington this morning for Sweet Briar, Va., where she will attend school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyde returned

Baron Rosen

Lieut. Col. Silas A. Wolf, U. S. A., and Mrs. Wolf have returned from the mountains of Fennsylvania and are at

The former minister to Belgium and Portugal, Lawrence Townsend, and Miss Yvonne Townsend, who spent the summer at Murray Bay, Canada, have returned to Washington and opened their residence, on Twentieth street, for the season.

Mrs. Townsend, who spent the summer traveling in Europe, will join them early in November. Mrs. Stewart E. Barber

Mrs. Stewart E. Barber, wife of Paymaster Barber, U. S. N., is spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Wesson will close the house Chevy Chase, which she and her sonin-law and daughter have occupied this summer, and will open her apartment in the Highlands the last of this week.

phia, who has taken an apartment in the Portland for the winter, will arrive in Washington early next month. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Baldwin

William Strother-Smith,

And Daughter In City. Mrs. Theodore F. Shuey and Miss Dorothy Shuev have arrived in Washington from their country place near moon and into a house that stood behind it. before I could catch my Staunton, Va., and have opened their house on California street for a short in Calvert Street.

to Washington today from Manchester, Mass., where they spent the summer, and are at their residence in Twenty-eighth street for the winter.

And Staff Arrive. Baron Rosen, the retiring Russian | the goblin, "you would not be so Ambussador, accompanied by the members of the embassy staff, arrived 4n Washington last night from the summer headquarters of the embassy at Manchester, Mass., where he joined the staff on his arrival in this country from Russia, September 15.
The new ambassador, M. George Bakhmetieff, and Mme. Bakhmetieff, will arrive in Washington about No-

Now Is In Atlantic City.

Miss Helen Audenreid of Philadel-have returned to their apartment in the Cordova, from Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., where they spent the summer.

With Baron and Baroness de Struve woods one moonlight night when he saw a goblin hopping behind bushes and trees and acting in the strangest manner possible. "Hello there!" said Jack, "what is the matter with you? Are you afraid of be> ing seen?" The goblin kept in the shadow of the trees and rocks and camo nearer to Jack > before he answered. "I am not afraid of being seen by ou," he said, "but I wish to keep out of the moonlight."

> "What is the matter with the moon light?" asked Jack, seating himself on the rock behind which the goblin was standing. "I think the moonlight is beautiful and I always try to sit where

"If you had ever walked along the path which leads to the moon," anxious to sit in his light, but being a mortal, you may never have the experience that I did." "What happened to you?" asked Jack "Tell me about it."

"If I can keep out of the moonlight long enough to tell it I will," said the goblin, "but he just seems to be looking for me." The goblin looked at the moon, and finding a place where the rock made a dark shadow, he began his story.

"One moonlight night," he said, was running through the forest with my brothers, when I noticed a very bright streak of light, which looked like a path leading from the edge of the forest

"So I slipped away from the other goblins and hurried to where the bright path began.

"I walked along, or up, the bright path for a long distance, looking down on the fields and meadows, and the water, too. The path was so narrow I was afraid some of the time that I was afraid some of the time that I it did not take me long to knock and should fall off, and the light grew call Su-ot-ne-po. I just fell inside when brighter and brighter until all at once I found myself face to face with the man in the moon.

up here? "I told him I came up hoping to see strange sights. 'You shall,' he said; 'go behind my back."

"How shall I get there?" I asked:
"there is no path, and if I step off this path that will be the end of me."
"Climb over," he said.
"Now, I am an expert climber and there is no height I cannot reach, but when it comes to climbing over moons, even the goblins will have to confess they are clumsy.
"I sliped all over the face of that moon, not able to get a hold or a footing anywhere. The edge was so smooth I could not keep my fingers

Mrs. William Strother-Smith, and Miss Margaret Strother-Smith, wife and daughter of Commander Strother-Smith, U. S. N., have returned to Washington from West Point and Atlantic City, and have opened their apartment in the Westmoreland.

Miss Margaret Strother-Smith will be among the debutantes of this season.

Mrs. Theodore F. Shuey

moon, not able to get a hold or a footing anywhere. The edge was so smooth I could not keep my fingers on it, and the old man was laughing at me all the time.

"But after a while he opened his mouth very wide to laugh at a very awkward slip I made, and I put the toe of my shoe on his lip and hopped to the top.

"I have moved very fast in my time, but the swiftness with which I moved or was removed from the top of that

"A long, lean hand reached out and breath.

"There were old women with broom time. Mr. Shuey, who is still in Virginia, will join his family the latter part of October and they will sail for Europe the first of November.

Miss Dorothy Shuey will finish her

"There were old women with broomsticks and old women with black cats under their arms, and old women leaning on canes, with chins and noses so pointed and crooked that they met.

"They were old women with broomsticks and old women with black cats under their arms, and old women leaning on canes, with chins and noses so pointed and crooked that they met. Europe the first of November.

Miss Dorothy Shuey will finish her studies abroad this year and expects to be among the debutantes of next becasen.

They were tall, peaked hats with marrow brims, and they all wore long capes.

""We have not one at last, said the capes.

FOR LITTLE FOLK JUST BEFORE BEDTIME

The Sandman's Stories

THE GOBLIN'S STORY.

ACK was coming home through the | going to teach me to ride a broomstic 'We are the witches of the air.' said one old woman, "and we have long wanted a goblin to help us. Tonight we induced the moon to let us make a bright path, thinking that one of your number might be tempted to walk up to the moon.

"'We want to teach you to ride a broomstick and dust the stars and keep the clouds bright and clean.
"You are so small you can get into all the corners and on the tallest point of

But I do not want to learn all this." I do not want to ride broomstick."

"Not want so ride on a broomstick," they all shrieked at once. 'Just hear "'Why,' said one old witch, 'to be able to ride a broomstick gracefully is the greatest accomplishment one can have."

"I will take him up with me, she said, catching me up and seating me before her on the broomstick, and off we flew, the others following.

"At first I could not see or hear, we went so fast, and I clung to the stick with both hands and feet. Suddenly we stonged in front of a cloud that they stopped in front of a cloud that they thought needed dusting, and the old witch I was with pulled a duster from under her cape and told me to climb to the top of the cloud and dust it. "I age sure it must be great fun dust-ing clouds," I said, 'but if you will let ing clouds, I said, but if you will let me try on something nearer the ground first, I am sure I can dust clouds as well as any one in a short time.

"Why not try the top of a tree or a mountain? I suggested.

"The old witches were so pleased to think I wished to learn their art of dusting that they consented, and down they flew to the top of a small tree.

"Dust the top branches, said the old witch, glying me the duster, and she

"Dust the top branches,' said the old witch, giving me the duster, and she took me by the shoulder and put me on the top of the tree.

"Of course I was perfectly at home in a tree, and I shook the duster about, hiding under the leaves, and when I thought they were not watching me thought they were not watching me closely I slipped through the bran

"I saw a moss-covered rock near, and the rock opened, and the next morning when my brothers found me, the said I was talking in a queer way about dusting the clouds and riding on a broomstick.

"I did not venture outside our land "I did not venture outside our land for a long time, and now I am very careful not to get in the bright moon-light, for the spell of the moon might tempt me again, and I feel sure if those witches ever get their long, lean hands on me again they will not let me escape, and I shall have to go on dust-ing clouds and stars the rest of my ing clouds and stars the rest of my days."

"That is a very interesting story," said Jack, "and now I have heard your reason I do not biame you for keeping out of the moonlight. I do not think they would want anyone as big as I am. but you may be sure I will keep away from any bright paths.

Tomorrow's story, "Hal and the Goat."

Sagging or Hanging

Cheeks and Chin Flabbiness of cheeks, chin or neck has een considered very difficult to correct, until the recent discovery of a vertiable wonder-worker for such conditions. The preparation is so simple and harmless any woman can easily make and apply it. It is all the more remarkable in that its beneficial effects are apparent even after the first application, both as to appearances and the feeling of comfort The formula is: Powdered saxolfic, 1 oz., dissolved in 1 pt. witch hazel. Use daily as a wash lotion. The solution tends to contract and solidify the loosbe among the debutantes of next season.

"We have not one at last," said the old woman, who had whisked me off the summer home at Nahant, Mass., in a suid another, "and teach him to ride a sead another, "By this time I had recovered from my fright, and I asked why they were a few weeks ago. folds, creases and wrinkles, besides hav-ing a refining influence on skin of coarse texture and large pores. As witch hazel and saxolite can be hed at any drug

POCKET BOOK DIRECTORY CONTAINING FULL DESCRIPTION OF

Washington's Most Popular Apartments

Address	No.of Rooms	Rent	Agent	Description
THE HERMITAGE	2 and 3 rooms and bath,	From $20 to $37.50.	John W. Childress, 1412 G st. N. W. Phone M. 3634; or see janitor, on premises.	Choice downtown location and yet one of the best residential sections. Few minutes walk from all depts, and business dist. Ideal for ladies in office.
THE ASHLEY	er and b.	$45 and $50 per month.	Shannon & Luchs, Renting Service, 713 14th st. N. W. Telephone M. 2345.	All apartments outside. Ele- vator, electric lights, porches. Representatives on premises GET OUR COMPLETE LIST.
THE PARKSIDE	6-room and bath aparts.	$27.50 per month.	Stone & Fairfax, 1342 N. Y. ave. N. W. Main 2332.	Steam heat, back porches, janitor service, telephane; few minutes' walk from all departments and the business district.
RAMONA 676 4th St. N. E.	and a rooms.	$35.00 and $25.00, $22.50, month.	Willett & Reinecke, 1309 H st. Main 4928,	Hardwood floors, hardwood trim; large storerooms; all car lines; walking distance of Capitol, Library, Union Station and Govt Ptg. Office.
THE MILBURN 308 East Capitol St.	5 rooms and bath.	$28.50 to $32.50.	John F. Donohoe & Sens, 314 Pa. ave, S. E. Phone Line. 34.	Best location on Hill-right on car ine-one of the pretti- est streets, Janitor service. All necessary repairs made before occupancy.
THE WINSTON	4 rooms, reception hall, and bath.	$35 per month. Only one left.	Gardiner & Dent (Inc)., $13 14th st. N. W. Real Estate, Loans, and Insurance.	Gas and electric light; all outside rooms; large porches. On Mt. Pleasant car line and near 14th st. Ideal location; large rooms; janitor service.
THE WINDSOR	3 to 6 rooms and tiled bath.	$22.50 to $50.00.	Geo. Henderson, 1418 F st. N. W. Telephone Main 1363,	Modern, fireproof building; electric elevator with all night service. Few steps from 4th street cars. GET OUR RENT LIST.
THE MOUNT VERNON	2-room, kitch- enette, and bath, to large 4-room apart- ments,	$20.00 to $27.50 per mo.	William J. Dante, Room 16, Hutchins Bidg., 19th and D sts. N. W. Main 2850.	Located within easy walking distance to shopping district and theaters. Apartments especially desirable to depart- ment employes; elec. elevator.
THE LINCOLN	6 rooms and bath.	$35 to $48.	James A. Cahill, 1208 F st. N. W. Phone Main 663,	All large outside rooms; con- venient to car lines, over- looving Lincoln Park. Jani- tor and elevator service; electric lights.
BENEDICK	2 rooms and bath.	$25 to $46, unfur.; $30 to $52, fur.	Manager on premises, Main 4520.	Bachelor apartments only. Tiled baths, individual show- ers; all night elevator and telephone service; meals served to rooms; swim. pool.
OWASCO—ANNEX	4 rooms and bath.	per month.	George Truesdell, 1627 Lincoln ave. N. E. North 6418.	Steam heat, electric light, tel- ephone; nicely finished throughout: French windows in bed room; large back porch; janitor service.
CAMBRIA & MAJESTIC	2, 3, 4, and 5 rooms.	$20.50 to $35.50.	N. L. Sansbury Co., Inc., 719 13th st. N. W. Main 5904-5.	Beautiful location; all out- side rooms, conveniently ar- ranged; excellent condition; well kept; telephone; very homelike. Can be seen NOW.
RUSSELL BUILDING	2 rooms and bath, 3 rooms and bath, 6 rooms and bath.	$22.50, $25.90 $32.50 $40.00	Alfred Higbie & Co., Managers of Property. Munsey Building.	Bachelor and housekeeping apartments. All modern con- veniences, right in the busi- ness district.